Famous Literary Characters Teacher's Answer Sheet The Art of Puppetry

Background:

Puppeteers create characters to tell new and classic stories like fairy tales, legends, plays, ballets, and operas.

Instructions:

1. Match each image with the right character and the right author by circling the right answers.
2. Have your teacher correct your answers, and then choose your favourite character.
3. Get a book from the library and answer the following questions:
 - a. What is the story behind your character (give a summary)?
 - b. Do you feel this puppet is a good representation of this character? Why or why not?

The correct answers are in bold. Additional information is available for each puppet.
