Each component of the National Museum of Man, (the History and Communications Divisions, the Canadian Ethnology Service, the Archaeological Survey of Canada, the Canadian Centre for Folk Culture Studies and the Canadian War Museum), provides papers for publication in the Mercury Series. 1973

- No. 2 "History Division: Annual Review 1972" by F.J. Thorpe. 22 p.; on request.
- No. 3 "Mid Forests Wild: A Study of the Concept of wilderness in the Writings of Susanna Moodie, J.W.D. Moodie, Catherine Parr, Traill and Samuel Strickland, c. 1830-1850" by Edward H. Dahl. 59 p., 4 illustrations. $1.00

This brief study uses content analysis to provide a refreshing approach to understanding the experience of early Canadian pioneers.

PUBLICATIONS DE LA
COLLECTION MERCURE

Chaque division du Musée national de l'Homme, (l'Histoire, les Communications, le Service canadien d'ethnologie, la Commission archéologique du Canada, le Centre canadien d'études sur la Culture traditionnelle et le Musée de Guerre), fournit des articles à la Collection Mercure. On peut les commander de la source ci-dessous, en adressant une demande accompagnée d'un chèque libellé au nom du Receveur Général du Canada. La division d'Histoire a déjà contribué à la Collection Mercure les numéros suivants:

1974

- No. 4 "History Division: Annual Review 1973" edited by F.J. Thorpe. 22 p.; on request.
- No. 5 "Some Sources for Women's History in the Public Archives of Canada" by Heather Rielly and Marilyn Hindmarch. 93 p., 5 photographs. $1.50

A selected bibliography of holdings (19th and 20th centuries, English language private papers) in the Public Archives of Canada of interest to the study of women's history.

- No. 6 "Le Sauvage: The Native People in Quebec historical writing on the Heroic Period (1534-1663) of New France" by Donald B. Smith. 133 p., 20 photographs. $1.50

The treatment of native peoples in Canadian History texts is currently the subject of some debate. This paper analyses the treatment of authors who have written on the period prior to 1665, a period of tremendous importance for it was the period of first contact when many of the stereotypes regarding native peoples were set down.

1975

- No. 7 "History Division: Annual Review 1974" edited by F.J. Thorpe. 40 p., 5 plates; on request.
- No. 8 "Un ferblantier de campagne (1875-1950)" par Jean-Pierre Hardy. 61 p., 34 planches. $1.25

L'outillage et les produits décrits et illustrés dans cet inventaire proviennent tous de la boutique des Lévesque de St-Pacôme, Comté de Kamouraska, ferblantier depuis le dernier quart du 19e siècle. Une brève biographie des deux plus vieux artisans de la famille sert d'arrière-plan historique.

- No. 9 "The Social Gospel in Canada: Papers of the interdisciplinary conference on the Social Gospel in Canada, March 21-24, 1973 at the University of Regina" edited by Richard Allen. 353 p. $4.25

The Social Gospel Movement has long been recognized as one of the creative forces in the development of a uniquely Canadian style of social criticism. The eleven papers presented in this volume examine the movement from a wide variety of perspectives. Five active participants in the movement offer their reminiscences, while five contemporary scholars examine the movement from a range of disciplinary viewpoints, all of which throw new light on a variety of questions. Professor Allen's introduction places the whole movement in an international setting that has not been attempted to date.

- No. 10 "Cities in the West: Papers of the Western Canada Urban History Conference - University of Winnipeg, October 1974" edited by A.R. McCormack and Ian MacPherson. 322 p., 8 plates. $3.75

The relatively recent preoccupation of Western Canadian historians with their urban past has resulted in an imaginative new field of research and writing. The papers presented in this volume sample that research from a variety of perspectives: the development of local government; social life; businessmen and pressure groups; radical politics; and recent trends and perspectives.

- No. 11 "A Checklist of Toronto Cabinet and Chair Makers, 1800-1865" by Joan MacKinnon. 203 p., 4 plates. $2.50

The present checklist of Toronto cabinet and chairmakers is published as an aid to and encouragement of further studies in the field of material history. It indicates the variety and wealth of archival sources available for research, as well as the shortcomings of such material.

- No. 12 "Le forgeron de campagne: un inventaire d'outils" par André Bérubé, François Duranleau, Thiery Ruddell et Serge St. Pierre 71 p., 41 planches. $1.00

Le métier de forgeron en fut un des plus importants du passé. Par sa contribution à la croissance économique, il occupait une place importante dans la société d'antan. Cet inventaire d'outils a pour but de contribuer à notre connaissance d'un élément important de notre passé artisanal.
