

Instructions:

Select your favourite puppet from the Canadian Museum of Civilization collection and create a story involving that character.

Read about the following literary genres and answer the questions below.

Stories and plays take many forms, ranging from tragedy to comedy. Below are five literary genres. Find the definition that fits each genre.

comedy / fairy tale / myth / tragedy / science fiction

- a. A funny story that makes us laugh
- b. An imaginary story based on fantasy
- c. A story with an unhappy ending
- d. A story that takes place in the future
- e. A story that tries to explain events and natural phenomena

Which genre does your story fit into?

Explain why the puppet you chose fits into that genre.

List the characteristics of your story that make it that genre.